EMPLOYEE COMPANY POLICY HANDBOOK

Fictional Sample Knowledge Base for RAG

Document Version: 3.0

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Review Cycle: Annual

Document Owner: People Operations

IMPORTANT NOTICE

This is a completely fictional company policy document created for testing and learning a Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) application. It is not an actual employment policy or legal document.

1. INTRODUCTION

Nexora Technologies is a fictional software and technology company providing cloud, automation, analytics, and artificial intelligence solutions.

This handbook defines general employee policies and procedures. It provides guidance on working hours, leave, remote work, expenses, information security, performance, learning, conduct, and resignation procedures.

2. WORKING HOURS AND ATTENDANCE

Standard working hours are Monday through Friday, from 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM local time, with a one-hour lunch break.

Employees are expected to maintain reasonable availability during their assigned working hours.

Employees should notify their manager if they expect to be more than 30 minutes late.

Repeated unexplained attendance issues may be reviewed by the employee's manager and People Operations.

Customer-support teams may follow approved rotational schedules.

Employees working rotational shifts must follow the schedule published by their team lead.

3. REMOTE AND HYBRID WORK POLICY

Eligible employees may work remotely for up to 3 days per week, subject to team requirements and manager approval.

Remote work does not change an employee's normal working hours.

Remote work must be performed from an approved location.

Employees must remain reachable through approved company communication tools during working hours.

Customer-facing teams may have different attendance requirements.

Managers may temporarily require office attendance for business, training, or collaboration needs.

4. LEAVE AND TIME OFF

Employees receive paid leave based on their employment category.

Annual Leave: Employees receive 24 working days of annual leave per year.

Sick Leave: Employees receive 12 working days of sick leave per year. Sick leave lasting more than 3 consecutive working days may require supporting documentation.

Personal Leave: Employees receive 4 working days of personal leave per year.

Parental Leave: Eligible employees receive 16 weeks of parental leave.

Annual leave requests for more than 5 consecutive working days should normally be submitted at least 10 calendar days in advance.

Employees may carry forward up to 8 unused annual leave days into the following calendar year.

5. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

Nexora observes public holidays applicable to the employee's assigned work location.

The annual holiday calendar is published by People Operations before the start of each calendar year.

Employees required to work on an approved company holiday may be eligible for compensatory time off according to the applicable local arrangement.

6. EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT

Employees may claim reasonable business expenses that are necessary for authorized company activities.

Expense claims should be submitted through the expense management system within 30 days of the expense date.

Receipts are required for individual expenses above INR 1,000.

Manager approval is required before reimbursement is processed.

Travel expenses must comply with the company's travel guidelines.

Personal expenses are not reimbursable unless explicitly authorized.

Approved reimbursements are normally processed within 10 business days.

7. BUSINESS TRAVEL

Business travel must be approved before booking.

Employees should use the company's approved travel booking process whenever available.

Economy-class air travel is the standard for flights shorter than 6 hours.

Business-class travel requires executive approval unless required by an applicable travel policy.

Employees should select reasonably priced hotels within the approved travel allowance.

8. INFORMATION SECURITY

Employees are responsible for protecting company information, customer data, credentials, and systems.

Security incidents must be reported promptly to the Security or IT team.

Passwords must not be shared with other employees.

Multi-factor authentication must be enabled for systems that support it.

Company laptops must use approved security controls and software.

Sensitive customer or company information must not be uploaded to unauthorized third-party services.

Lost or stolen company devices must be reported within 4 hours of discovery.

Employees must lock their workstation whenever they leave it unattended.

9. ACCEPTABLE USE OF COMPANY SYSTEMS

Company systems, networks, applications, and devices are provided primarily for business purposes.

Limited personal use may be permitted when it does not interfere with work, security, productivity, or company resources.

Employees must not install unauthorized software on managed devices.

Employees must not attempt to bypass security controls.

Company credentials must not be used for unauthorized personal activities.

Use of company systems for illegal activities is prohibited.

10. DATA PRIVACY

Nexora processes employee and customer information only for legitimate business purposes and in accordance with applicable privacy requirements.

Access to personal or confidential information should be limited to employees who require it for their responsibilities.

Employees must verify recipients before sending confidential information.

Personal data should not be stored in unapproved locations.

Requests concerning employee personal information should be directed to People Operations or the Privacy team.

11. PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

Employees participate in a formal performance review twice per year.

Managers may also conduct quarterly check-ins to discuss goals, development, feedback, and performance.

Employees are expected to maintain documented goals for the review period.

Performance concerns should be discussed with the employee before formal corrective action where appropriate.

12. LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT

Nexora encourages employees to develop technical, professional, and leadership skills.

Eligible employees may receive an annual learning allowance of INR 25,000 for approved courses, certifications, conferences, or training.

Training requests require manager approval before purchase.

Certification reimbursement may require proof of completion.

Unused learning allowance does not automatically carry over to the following year.

13. CODE OF CONDUCT

Employees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully toward colleagues, customers, partners, and other stakeholders.

Harassment, discrimination, intimidation, retaliation, and workplace violence are not permitted.

Concerns may be reported to a manager, People Operations, or the designated ethics channel.

Retaliation against a person who raises a concern in good faith is prohibited.

14. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Employees must disclose situations that could create an actual or potential conflict between their personal interests and their responsibilities to Nexora.

Outside employment that conflicts with company responsibilities requires prior disclosure.

Employees must not use confidential company information for personal benefit.

15. RESIGNATION AND NOTICE PERIOD

The standard notice period for regular full-time employees is 60 calendar days, unless a different period is specified in the employee's employment agreement or applicable local law.

Resignations should be submitted through the approved HR process.

Company property must be returned before or on the employee's final working day unless otherwise arranged.
